RULES

FIS Eastern Europe Cup is the Continental Cup for the region, which includes Kazakhstan. Kazakhstani athletes receive additional quotas (over and above their country's standard allocation) for the World Cup.

Athletes from other countries may also compete under general FIS racing conditions, but they do not participate in the scoring of points towards World Cup quotas.

For the 2025–2026 season, three stages of the EEC are scheduled to be held in Schuchinsk.

In accordance with the decision of the FIS Council dated 21.10.2025, athletes representing Russia and Belarus are not permitted to participate in any FIS competitions.

A valid medical insurance policy is mandatory for participation.

Competitions are held in accordance with the International FIS Rules and the FIS Continental Cup Rules.

A FIS code is required for participation.

The minimum age of participants is 2010 year of birth.
